The Center for Economic Analyses (CEA) is a think tank of economists who share a common vision for the Republic of Macedonia as an emerging new European economy integrated in the regional and worldwide market.

The Mission of CEA is to continuously research economic development and economic policy in the Republic of Macedonia and to offer recommendations, suggestions and measures where it is deemed appropriate.

PRESS RELEASE

CEA prepared 3 new special reports for USAID

In accordance with the contract signed between USAID and CEA, CEA prepares special reports for USAID.

The first report was prepared by Marjan Nikolov back in March 2006 and it was about the Labor Market in Macedonia. This report was used also by the IMF in their activities.

The second report was prepared by Marjan Nikolov and it is about the short term economic forecasting and the need for developing of Leading Economic Indicators – LEI in Macedonia.

The third report was prepared by Senaj Daut and it is about the social capital and its possible impact on the economic growth in Macedonia.

The fourth paper was prepared by Malgorzata Markiewicz and it is about the migration and remittances in Macedonia.

All four papers illustrate actual topics of the Macedonian economy and illustrate the need for more in depth study in the related area.

The reports will be available at the official web site of CEA: www.cea.org.mk
